

My Dear Sir.

My bowels seem better. The irritation has gone higher up but I've been feverish a little - headache, pains in hip joints, dry burning feet - general soreness of the muscles particularly those of hips & lower back - am perspiring but find no relief - the sinuses are somewhat obstructed - indicating a general cold - nothing more I think - as I may have a restless night off it may not a Dover's powder better suit the change I have undergone than the morphia, you ordered this morning may not the latter increase the headache and feelings there - which I did not have this morning - Should you judge the Dover's

Please excuse my troubling you thus - I want to husband my strength, if any I have, by a quiet night's sleep - I hope you will see no presumption
